

STOCKHOLM SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS IN RIGA GENDER STATISTICS

According to the Stockholm School of Economics in Riga Gender Equality Plan the following statistics on gender balance have been compiled to reflect the situation across different areas of the school.

The data below have been compiled on March 20, 2026.

1. BACHELOR PROGRAMME

	Men	Women	Total	Percent %
Admission 2025	86	49	135	Women 36% Men 64%
All students	293	186	479	Women 39% Men 61%
Graduation 2025 (class admitted 2022)	76	58	134	Women 43% Men 57%

2. EXECUTIVE MBA PROGRAMME

	Men	Women	Total	Percent %
Admission 2025	17	14	31	Women 45% Men 55%

All students	40	27	67	Women 40% Men 60%
Graduation 2025 (class admitted 2023)	15	9	24	Women 38% Men 62%

3. EMPLOYEES

	Men	Women	Total	Percent %
Total employees	21	38	59	Women 64% Men 36%
Senior Management	3	5	8	Women 63% Men 37%
Elected faculty and researchers	12	9	21	Women 43% Men 57%
Full professorships	2	2	4	Women 50% Men 50%

Number of registered cases of students and employees experiencing discrimination or harassment based on gender, including sexual harassment, in 2025: 0 cases.